**PLEASE DO NOT RESPOND TO THIS E-MAIL****

Reminder for your online proctored exam: Please review the information below before your exam.

We want your online proctored exam experience to be as trouble-free as possible. Before the exam, your responsibilities include reading all exam policies and FAQs, as well as ensuring your computer, internet connection, and the room that you'll use when testing meet all the requirements.

Run the System Test prior to your exam to minimize the risk of technical issues you may experience. The system test should be run even if you have previously taken an online proctored exam. (This is because the online proctoring software is updated regularly.) Be sure to run it on the same network and computer you will use on exam day.

Review the System Requirements drop-down menu to ensure your system is compatible with the online proctoring software.

Review both the Pearson VUE policies and procedures. These sections cover how to prepare your workspace, what is and is not allowed on test day, and how to access technical support.

Breaks are not allowed during the exam for any reason. If you leave your computer during your exam the proctor will end your session and you will be unable to continue testing.

Prepare your testing environment

For best results, prepare your testing environment before your appointment. Every OnVUE testing environment must meet these criteria:

- Quiet: background noise may distract proctors monitoring your exam session and could interfere with your session.
- No interruptions: inform any other members of your household that you are taking an exam and cannot be interrupted during your entire appointment time.
- Well lit: proctors must be able to see you and your testing space well. Do not sit in front of a window or other strong light. If you are backlit, you are not clearly visible (draw shades or curtains and/or turn off lights behind you).
- Privacy:
  - No one else in the room: ideally, you should prevent others from entering. If someone does inadvertently enter, say "Please leave; I'm testing." No other communication is allowed and could lead to your exam being terminated.
  - Others cannot see your exam: no one else must be able to view your computer or monitor, even through windows.
- Nothing in arm's reach that is not specifically allowed:
  - Your exam program will indicate any equipment or materials specifically approved for use during an OnVUE exam; these must be on the desk during checkin.
Note: there is a difference between what is allowed at a testing center and what is allowed in an OnVUE testing session
  - Be sure to place your mobile phone out of arm's reach after you finish using it to take the check in photos. It needs to be available should we need to contact you.

Make sure you have the right equipment

You provide your own equipment for testing, so make sure it's right.

- Required: a desktop or a laptop; tablets and touch screens cannot be used for your exam.
- Required: a single monitor. Extra monitors are not allowed; you should remove them from the testing room, or at least show them as unplugged in your testing environment photos.
- Required if using an external monitor with a laptop: you must have an external mouse, keyboard, and webcam and the lid of your laptop must be closed
- Recommended: a personal computer rather than a work computer, which may have additional security that can interfere with your testing session.

- <https://home.pearsonvue.com/onvue-tips>

Creating a support ticket with Pearson VUE

Normally, you shouldn't need to. If you are disconnected from the proctor and cannot resume your OnVUE exam, we will create a case on your behalf. If you want to raise the issue yourself, however, you can contact Pearson VUE Customer Support by chat or phone.

- Chat is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
- Phone support varies by region. Find phone support information for your region on the Pearson VUE Customer Support webpage.

Please note that customer support wait times are longer than usual right now.
